GRADE 12 ADVANCED | UNIT 2

VOCABULARY WORKSHEET D

Author's Purpose & Critical Reading

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

Choose the correct answer (a, b, or c). Each question is worth 1 mark.

1. The reason a writer creates a text is the author's _____.

a) purpose b) roof c) transport

2. The people a text is written for are its _____.

a) residents b) fabrics c) audience

3. The writer's feelings about a topic are shown by their _____.

a) infrastructure b) attitude c) drainage

4. An opinion or a way of seeing an issue is a _____.

a) viewpoint b) rooftop c) population

5. A text that tries to convince readers is _____.

a) kinesthetic b) crowded c) persuasive

6. A text that considers different sides fairly is _____.

a) muddy b) balanced c) rigid

7. A writer who considers possible risks is _____.

a) cautious b) auditory c) monotonous

8. A writer who expects good things to happen is _____.

a) critical b) crowded c) optimistic

9. To examine an idea carefully instead of accepting it immediately is to be _____.

a) urban b) critical c) affordable

10. Facts that support a statement are called _____.

a) evidence b) rooftops c) approaches

TEACHER'S ANSWER KEY

Grade 12 Advanced • Unit 2 • Worksheet D — Author's Purpose & Critical Reading

Question | Answer	Question | Answer	Question | Answer	Question | Answer	Question | Answer
1 — A	2 — C	3 — B	4 — A	5 — C
6 — B	7 — A	8 — C	9 — B	10 — A

Total: 10 marks